CHOOSE UNITY.

The past two years have been incredibly challenging. Lockdowns and restrictions were followed by vaccine passports and job mandates, resulting in countless Canadians losing their jobs or being excluded from public life.

Conservatives have opposed vaccine mandates from Day 1 and supported common-sense accommodations and choice. No one should lose their job for not getting the jab.

Trudeau's Liberal government is inciting deep division in our country, purely for political gain. But Canadians responded - thousands of people came to the capital to protest the mandates that have deepened division throughout our families and communities.

Seeing thousands of Canadians gather peacefully to protest their government gives me hope that we can be unified. I spoke to countless peaceful people who simply want to see a pathway out of the pandemic. They were not a fringe minority of racists, as Justin Trudeau claims.

They included Canadians of all faiths and backgrounds, seniors, young couples, and families. Seeing Canadians come together should restore hope in all of us.

In Alberta, Saskatchewan, Ontario and Nova Scotia, governments are ending restrictions and mandates. They are following the science, which recognizes we need to learn to live with COVID-19.

In the weeks and months ahead, our nation faces a tipping point between continued division and renewed unity. I urge you to embrace this hope. Love your neighbours, regardless of their views on vaccines and mandates.

Let's work together to restore the true patriot love in all of us.

Sincerely,

Arnold Viersen, MP
