

PETITION TO THE HOUSE OF COMMONS

Parental Rights

We, the undersigned citizens and residents of Canada, draw the attention of the House of Commons to the following:

Whereas:

- The Liberal Government is involving itself in decisions that should be made by parents and provinces.
- Conservative Leader Pierre Poilievre criticized the Liberal government’s attempted interference when he told Justin Trudeau to “butt out” of New Brunswick Premier Blaine Higgs’ Policy 713. The New Brunswick proposal requires that schools receive parental consent to change the names and pronouns of students under the age of 16 for official recordkeeping purposes.
- In the vast majority of cases, parents care about the wellbeing of their children and love them much more than any state-run institution. The role of government is to support families and respect parents, not to dictate how they should make decisions for their children.

Therefore, we, the undersigned, call on the Government of Canada to butt out and to let parents raise their own children.
